American Insulated Glass Welcomes Kevin Carter as Regional Sales Representative

Atlanta, GA. April 13, 2021—American Insulated Glass (AIG) welcomes Kevin Carter as regional sales representative as the company continues to expand its service area and fabrication capabilities throughout the US. Carter will be based at the company's Birmingham fabrication plant and will manage sales in north Alabama and west Tennessee, including Nashville and Memphis. He is a glass industry veteran with over 35 years' experience. Carter most recently worked for Columbia Commercial Building Products in Texas. "Kevin will be a strong contributor and we look forward to him joining the AIG family," stated Clint Blair, vice president.
